Branch Manager, Regina

Regina, Saskatchewan

This is a challenging, rewarding, and dynamic role whose focus will be to run a successful branch office. Regina is growing, fast. Companies need workers, now. And you have access to the workforce they need.

As Branch Manager, you will have will have autonomy and ultimate responsibility for all aspects of the branch operations and be a strong self starter, able to think creatively, and able to land and close sales. Key to making this happen is:

- (1) Focus on existing clients. Your clients are counting on you to deliver the right talent for them, when they need it. Proven client management and sales experience (3-5 years) is critical if you want to be the go-to person to address their workforce needs.
- (2) Building networks and landing new clients. Take advantage of this opportunity to showcase your sales experience and proven ability to deliver results.
- (3) Continuing to monitor the supply/demand of talent. Prior recruitment experience is not required (that is where your team comes in), but you are ultimately accountable for managing the supply/demand of talent for your branch. You will need to prove you are up for the challenge and can develop the strategies to keep the pipeline full.
- (4) Mentoring and developing team members. You will need to demonstrate your ability to leverage this opportunity to build on both your strengths, and that of your team.
